Quarterly Fund Manager Review

The fund (W-ACC) delivered a 3.0% return over the quarter and outperformed the FTSE All Share Index, which returned 2.2%. Stock selection, notably within the consumer discretionary, financials and utilities sectors, contributed to performance. Meanwhile, macroeconomic concerns weighed on selected holdings. Sports betting and gaming company Entain advanced amid news that its American peer DraftKings had made a takeover offer for the company. Retailers Marks & Spencer and JD Sports rallied following strong trading updates and upgrades to their profit guidance, as shoppers returned to the high street. Meanwhile, the fund participated in the initial public offering (IPO) of Saisetia, a company involved with the technology and production of electric motors for automobiles. Its shares made a strong debut, rising strongly following its listing. The position in precision instruments supplier Spectris advanced following upgrades to its full year revenue guidance after it posted a strong set of results. Elsewhere, Liontrust Asset Management continued to attract strong inflows, benefiting from a compelling investment offering and successful marketing initiatives. Not holding oil & gas major Royal Dutch Shell proved detrimental to performance, as energy stocks received a boost from rising fuel prices. Meanwhile, concerns over labour shortages and supply chain disruptions weighed on holding in Restaurant Group and meat producer Cranswick. Medical equipment manufacturer Smith & Nephew traded weakly as reasonably positive earnings failed to meet market participants' high expectations.
